§ 7.

Right of Withdrawal from the Agreement

1. A Guest who is a consumer, or a Guest to whom provisions applicable to consumers apply (i.e. a natural person entering into an agreement directly related to their business activity where the content of that agreement indicates that it is not of a professional nature for them, arising in particular from the subject matter of their business activity as recorded in CEIDG), has the right to withdraw from the agreement for participation in the Event without giving any reason, pursuant to Article 27 of PrKonsU. Withdrawal from the agreement is possible within 14 days from the date on which the Guest registered to participate in the Event. To meet the deadline, it is sufficient to submit a withdrawal statement before its expiry, in any form. The Guest incurs no costs as a result of withdrawal from the agreement.
1. A withdrawal statement may be submitted using the form whose template is included in these Regulations (Appendix No. 2 to the Regulations). The above template is provided to the Guest each time together with the registration confirmation and delivery of the accepted text of the Regulations, to the Guest's e-mail address.

2. If a withdrawal statement is submitted, the Organizer shall refund the participation fee paid by the Guest in full, without undue delay and no later than 14 days from the date of receipt of the withdrawal statement. The Guest is not required to return any items or data to the Organizer in connection with the withdrawal.
1. If the Guest has been partially exempted from the obligation to pay the participation fee, the Organizer shall, within the period specified above, refund to the Guest the portion of the fee actually paid. If the Guest has been fully exempted from the obligation to pay the participation fee, the Organizer shall not make any refund to the Guest.
2. If the Guest withdraws from the agreement pursuant to paragraph 1 after submitting a request under §3(3)(e) or §3(12)(b) of the Regulations, i.e. for performance of the agreement before the withdrawal period under Article 27 of PrKonsU expires, the Guest shall be required to pay the participation fee in proportion to the extent of the service performed for the Guest. In such case, the Organizer shall refund to the Guest the remaining portion of the participation fee, i.e. the amount exceeding the value of the service performed by the Organizer.
3. The Organizer informs that, pursuant to Article 38(1)(12) of the Consumer Rights Act, the Guest has no right to withdraw from a distance or off-premises agreement concerning accommodation services other than for residential purposes where the agreement specifies a date or period for the provision of the service; consequently, the Guest has no right to withdraw from the hotel service reservation referred to in §3A(6) et seq. of the Regulations.
3. The right to withdraw from a distance or off-premises agreement does not apply to consumers in relation to agreements:
 - a) for the provision of services for which the consumer is required to pay a price, if the entrepreneur has fully performed the service with the consumer's express prior consent, after informing the consumer before performance begins that they will lose the right of withdrawal once the service has been fully performed, and the consumer has acknowledged this;
 - b) where the price or remuneration depends on fluctuations in the financial market over which the entrepreneur has no control and which may occur before the expiry of the withdrawal period;
 - c) for the supply of non-prefabricated goods manufactured to the consumer's specifications or serving to satisfy the consumer's individualized needs;
 - d) for the supply of goods liable to deteriorate rapidly or having a short shelf life;
 - e) for the supply of goods delivered in sealed packaging which cannot be returned after opening for health protection or hygiene reasons, if the packaging was opened after delivery;
 - f) for the supply of goods which, after delivery, become inseparably mixed with other goods due to their nature;
 - g) for the supply of alcoholic beverages whose price was agreed at the time of concluding the sales agreement, whose delivery may take place only after 30 days and whose value depends on fluctuations in the market over which the entrepreneur has no control;
 - h) where the consumer expressly requested the entrepreneur to visit them for the purpose of carrying out urgent repairs or maintenance; if the entrepreneur provides additional services other than those requested by the consumer, or supplies goods other than replacement parts necessarily used for the repair or maintenance, the

- consumer has the right of withdrawal with respect to the additional services or goods;
- i) for the supply of audio or visual recordings or computer software delivered in sealed packaging, if the packaging was opened after delivery;
 - j) for the supply of newspapers, periodicals or magazines, except subscription agreements;
 - k) concluded by way of a public auction;
 - l) for the provision of accommodation services other than for residential purposes, carriage of goods, car rental, catering, leisure services, entertainment, sporting or cultural events, if the agreement specifies a date or period for the provision of the service;
 - m) for the supply of digital content not supplied on a tangible medium, for which the consumer is required to pay a price, if the entrepreneur has begun performance with the consumer's express prior consent, after informing the consumer before performance begins that they will lose the right of withdrawal once performance has begun, and the consumer has acknowledged this, and the entrepreneur has provided the consumer with the confirmation referred to in Article 15(1) and (2) of PrKonsU or Article 21(1) of PrKonsU;
 - n) for the provision of services for which the consumer is required to pay a price, where the consumer expressly requested the entrepreneur to visit them to carry out repairs and the service has already been fully performed with the consumer's express prior consent.

Final Provisions

1. In matters not regulated by these Regulations, the relevant provisions of law shall apply, including the provisions of the Civil Code.
2. Any disputes that may arise in connection with participation in the Event shall be resolved by the court having territorial and subject-matter jurisdiction over the place where the Event is organized.
3. The Organizer reserves the right to amend these Regulations, including with respect to the venue and time of the Event, its schedule and its cancellation, in the event of important reasons. Any amendment to the Regulations will be announced on the Event website together with the date from which the amended version will apply and will be delivered to Participants who have already registered to the e-mail address provided during registration.
4. Amendments to the Event Regulations shall take effect on the date specified in the notice of amendment, but not earlier than 7 days after the notice of the amendment has been sent to Participants in accordance with §8(3).
5. In the event of changes to the organization of the Event, Guests retain the right to participate in the Event at the new date, venue and under the conditions specified by the Organizer.
6. A Guest may unilaterally withdraw from the agreement for participation in the Event within 7 days from the date of receiving information about an amendment to the Regulations affecting the time or venue of the Event or changing the scope of services assigned to the individual Ticket types specified in Appendix No. 1 to the Regulations.
7. Withdrawal from the agreement pursuant to paragraph 6 above requires the Guest to submit a withdrawal statement in writing to the Organizer's correspondence address or in documentary form to the Organizer's e-mail address. Withdrawal from the agreement does not require the Guest to incur any related costs. The Organizer undertakes to refund the participation fee paid by the Guest within 14 days from receipt of the withdrawal statement. As a result of submitting the statement, the agreement concluded between the parties expires and the parties are required to return the reciprocal performances they have rendered.

8. In addition to the rights specified in paragraph 7, the Guest may terminate the agreement for participation in the Event only for important reasons, while remaining obliged to reimburse the expenses incurred by the Organizer to perform the agreement and the portion of remuneration relating to activities already undertaken to perform it. The provisions of paragraph 7 above shall apply accordingly to termination for important reasons.
9. Failure to pay the participation fee within 14 days from the date of registration entitles the Organizer to terminate the agreement unilaterally. Independently of the foregoing, the Organizer may demand payment of the participation fee by setting an additional 7-day period for payment.
10. The technical requirement for using the registration confirmation provided by the Organizer, referred to in §4(1) of the Regulations, in digital form is the use of an electronic device capable of running a program or application that can read PDF files, e.g. Adobe Acrobat DC, Foxit Reader or Mozilla Firefox, and the use of such program or application.
1. The Organizer undertakes to provide services to the Guest free from defects and in accordance with the terms of the Regulations accepted by the Guest and shall therefore be liable for improper performance of its obligations towards the Guest. Complaints submitted by the Guest to the Organizer using one of the contact methods specified in §1(6) of the Regulations shall be considered within 14 days of receipt. The Guest will be informed of the outcome without undue delay, in writing or by e-mail, depending on the form in which the complaint was submitted, and, if the complaint is upheld, also of further steps related to its handling. In connection with providing services to Guests, the Organizer does not provide any guarantee or similar rights other than those described above.
2. A Guest may use out-of-court methods for handling complaints and pursuing claims, including alternative dispute resolution methods, such as requesting mediation from the competent authority or referring the matter to an arbitration court. In particular, the Guest may seek assistance from Permanent Consumer Arbitration Courts operating at Voivodeship Inspectorates of Trade Inspection, request free legal advice from the Municipal (County) Consumer Ombudsman or consumer organizations. Current rules on access to and proceedings before the above authorities and organizations may be obtained by contacting the selected entity.
3. The Organizer excludes its liability for damages, including liability for improper performance of the agreement and statutory warranty liability for defects, towards Guests who are entrepreneurs, except for liability for damage intentionally caused by the Organizer. The above exclusion of liability does not apply to Guests who are entrepreneurs to whom provisions applicable to consumers apply, i.e. natural persons entering into agreements directly related to their business activity where the content of the agreement indicates that it is not of a professional nature for them, arising in particular from the subject matter of their business activity as recorded in CEIDG.
4. Participants are required to familiarize themselves with these Regulations.
